NINETEEN EIGHTY

ELIZABETHAN

1979-1980 CURRENT EVENTS

LEFT:
FORMER FIRST LADY DIES - Mamie Eisenhower holds up a campaign button for her husband President Dwight Eisenhower at a San Francisco show in 1956.
RIGHT:
MEETING THE PRESS - Chicago's first woman mayor, Jane Byrne, is shown facing newsmen to announce appointment of four administrative assistants.

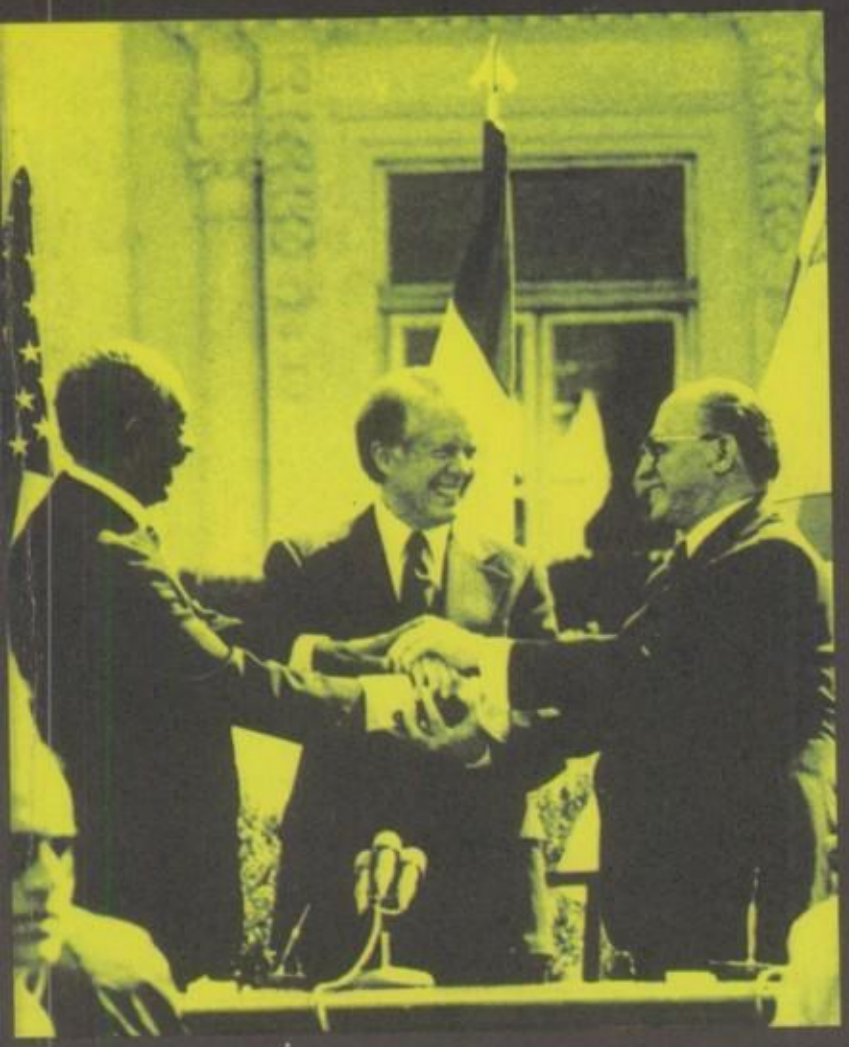
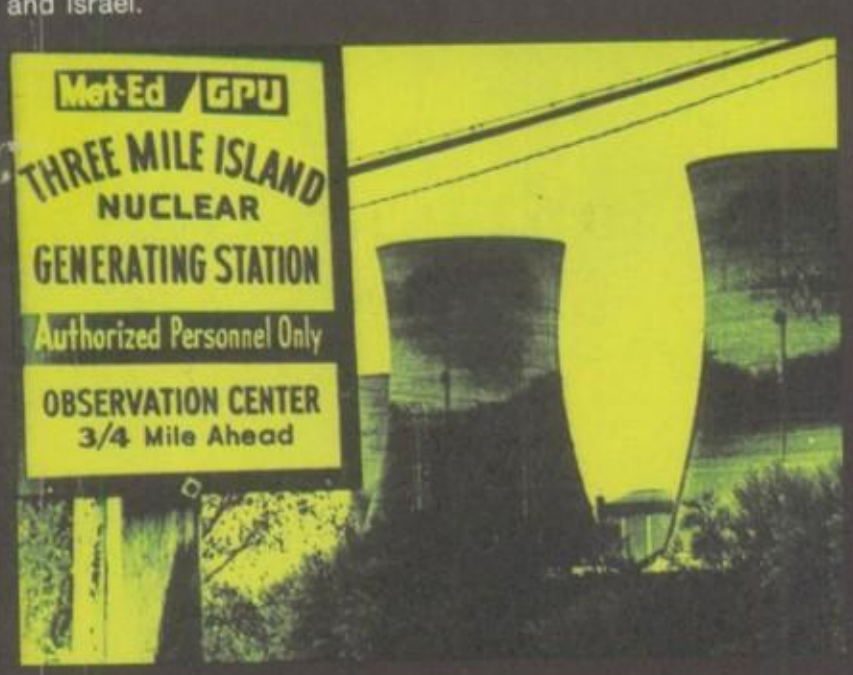
PASSING THE GAVEL - After heading the AFL-CIO for 24 years, George Meany passes the gavel to the new President Lane Kirkland.

NOBEL WINNER - Mother Theresa received the Nobel Peace Prize for 1979 from the Chairman of the Norwegian Nobel Committee John Sanness.

CUP FOR TENNIS CHAMP - Tracy Austin holds the first prize cup in the U.S. Open in Flushing, NY.



PEACE BRINGS THEM TOGETHER - Egyptian President Sadat, U.S. President Carter and Israeli Prime Minister Begin clasp hands after the signing of a peace treaty between Egypt and Israel.

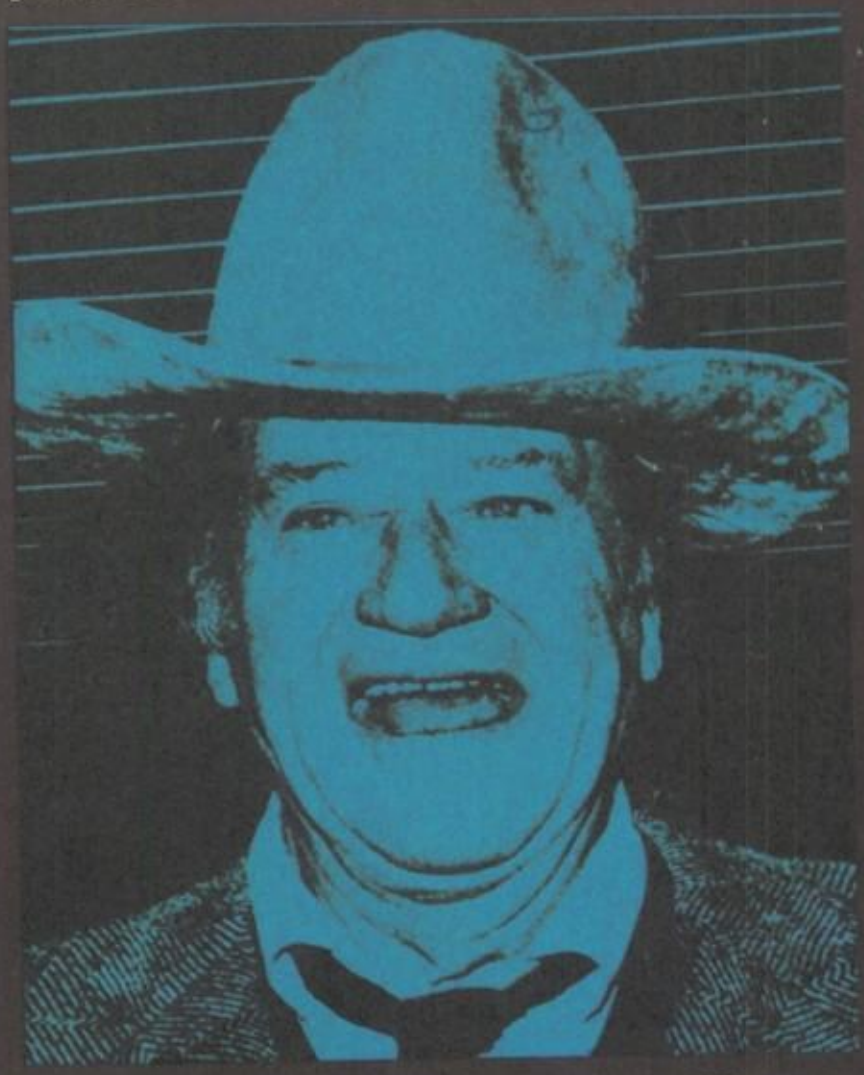


APPROACHING COLD SHUTDOWN - Technicians worked to achieve a cold shutdown following a near-crisis that reportedly allowed radioactive steam to leak into the air surrounding a reactor at the Three Mile Island plant in Pennsylvania.

DISCO MADNESS - Disco dancers gyrate at New York's Studio 54. As the result of films and television the Disco fad caught fire across the country.

BOSTON POPS - Conductor Arthur Fiedler, shown here conducting the Boston Pops Orchestra in one of its many performances, died in 1979.

SCENE OF CONCERT DEATHS - Nine people were killed outside Cincinnati's Riverfront Coliseum as a crowd surged to get into a rock concert by "The Who".



VETERAN ACTOR DIES - John Wayne, shown in 1974, wears a western-style hat which marked him as one of America's biggest film heroes in countless Western movies.

To Jo-So
my brother who I Love
ery much. I been Knowing you for 9 years it seem like a long time now.
I want you to stay Nice and Keep on playing basketball because one day you might be a star. I think every day we get to understand each other more and more. I glad that same of the people at the Hz didn't change you because I want you to stay like you are. I hope you stay with the person you got. I think Are friendship will become more closer every day.
stay like you are and me and you will be all Right.
Love Jodie

TO Jody
a nice and inteligent young man. Stay nice,
sweet, and in school. You will always be like
a Cousin to me
ven though you
re all ways
lting on me

Jo: Jodie
Hey you its been really nice knowing you this year and I enjoyed every moment
being with you, Lisa and Lori
and I expect to always see all you around. I love you guys so much and I hope
all of our friendships remain
the same. Cause I never want anything to change between the 4 of us. So last but not least Good luck in the future and the years to come. And also to always remember me Always!
Love

NINETEEN EIGHTY

To: Jodie a very special special friend,
far greater than all the rest of my other friends.
Jodie I really impressed at
the way you have matured.
Stay sweet and I am sure you will get alot of things in life, and you know what I mean, you know I can't express my words on paper so I'll shorten it with I love you Jodie.

Stay sweet

FATHER KENNY

This year we are proud to dedicate the Elizabethan to Father Kenny Scott.

Father Kenny is always available to the students and faculty of S.E.H.

It can truely be said that Father personifies the "sights and sounds" of Saint Elizabeth High.

The 1979-80 school year has been a time of many trials and triumphs for S. E. H. both in academics and in athletics.

Saint Elizabeth High School has always exacted high standards and this year, as in the past, the Mustangs have responded with excellence in the classroom, on the field, and on the court.

We salute the faculty and students, the coaches and players, who have worked together to build S. E. H. into a creative, productive family. Our thanks and respect to all of you.

WE ARE PROUD OF YOU.

WE ARE PROUD OF US.

To a very sweet person I know, Jody. I have not known you for a very long time, and I feel very bad, because I think about the fun I've had knowing you now. Jody you're a very good friend and a very special person. I want to thank you for being that friend, and giving me the smile that really makes my day a better one. I only hope that since summer is coming you won't forget me. Because it's friendly people like you, who make a bad day into a bright one. So stay sweet + don't forget to smile for me.

Thanks to everyone who made this school year possible. But most of all to Mrs. O'Neill, Miss Marenger, and Mrs. Fowler. Whoever decides to become editor and co-editor, I hope that you guys won't have as many problems as I did.

Well, Seniors, it all over. Go out and enjoy the world.

Hello friendly T. Pers and camping buddies. This year has been lots of fun and full of surprises. I'll always remember it. Bye - Bye.

Oh! P.S. Thanks Mom, Dad and Brother Joey for your support. I love you.

After many, many hours of hard work and dedication, this year's Elizabethan became a reality. The 1979-80 yearbook staff consisted of very few members, each of whom worked beyond the call of duty.

Miss Patty Teixeira, Editor, prepared much of this book on her own. The other staff members, without whom this book would not have been completed, are:

Seniors: Consuela Vivit, Dino Evans, Jose Cruz Caroline Hernandez, Gloria Goyena, Nonie Heavey, Ralph delaO; Juniors: Kirk Washington, Gina Goyena; Sophomores: Kevin Cooper, Denise Malone, Dierdre Richardson; Frosh: Paul Flores, Dana Tavares.
